Office of Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20905

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to express my concern over the situation in Central America, particularly Nicaragua. It is my belief that the United States is providing military aid to the Contras who are disrupting the Democratic processes in Nicaragua. The United States is doing this through the C.I.A. and Defense Department without the approval of Congress. I urge you to use the power of your office to investigate and end U.S. military involvement in Nicaragua.

I am writing this on behalf of my Baptist brothers and sisters in Nicaragua, many of whom have been kidnapped and murdered by the Contras for the meager offense of spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ through their work with the poor. This terrorism must stop and I believe the United States can play a key role in stopping it if you will take the appropriate action to do so. I urge you to do this.

Sincerely,

RONALD E. CARY
